Keith Manese – Master in European Studies in Investor Relations and Financial Communication – Bloomberg

“It was a fantastic evening to explore career paths, meet inspiring professionals, and connect with companies. I had the opportunity to support the team, assist with logistics, and interact with students. The workshops and Job Gallery Walks were especially enriching, offering valuable insights into my career prospects and the chance to hear directly from industry experts.”

Chiara Vergagni – Master in Digital Fashion Communication – DSQUARED2

“The event was truly inspiring - I loved sharing this experience with fellow students, meeting talented professionals, and receiving invaluable CV counselling advice. An amazing opportunity to grow professionally!”

Valentina Vergari – Master in Public Management and Policy – Federal Administration

“I really enjoyed being a Student Angel at LNoC 25. It was a great opportunity to contribute to its success while gaining valuable insight into large-scale operations. I also appreciate being part of such a supportive team, connecting with professionals from various fields, and developing important skills in a fast-paced environment. It's been a rewarding experience both personally and professionally!”

Mattia Mombelli – Master Degree in Economics and International Policies – Swiss National Bank

“I enjoyed the possibility of connecting with professionals in the sector, who gave me super helpful advice for my future career path.”

Grecia Gonzales – Master Degree in Economics and International Policies – RUAG

“Events like this are more than networking opportunities, they're moments of discovery that broaden our horizons and reveal new possibilities for the future.”
