
Directive (of 13 September 2011) on the election of Faculty Council representatives, including undergraduates, graduate students and post-docs

Given article 6, points 1 and 2 of the Communication, Culture and Society Faculty Statute shown below,

1. The Faculty Council consists of full, associate, assistant professors, and adjunct professors. The representatives of the intermediate body and of the student body are also members of the Faculty Council.
2. The intermediate body and the student body each appoint two representatives. They serve for one year, which is not renewable. The conditions of appointment are defined in a directive from the Dean's office.

The Dean's Office has adopted the following Directive:

Art. 1 Nomination

1. Post-doc and doctoral student representatives, as well Master's delegates for each Master's course and Bachelor's representatives of each year of the degree, are elected in the general assemblies of each category.
2. Master's representatives are nominated by their respective delegates, in other words, by the delegates of the different Master's courses; Bachelor's representatives are nominated by the various years (only the second and third years' delegates are eligible)
3. The nominating bodies should meet at the latest one month before the end of their mandate.

Art. 2 Mandate

1. The mandate of Faculty Council representatives, as indicated in article 1, has a duration of one year.
2. Post-doc and doctoral representatives start their mandates on the 1st of September.
3. Bachelor's and Master's student representatives start their mandate on the 1st of November.

Art. 3 Substitution

The nominating bodies also nominate substitutes to replace their representatives, only if the official representative is unable to attend.

Art. 4 Removal

The representatives' mandates, indicated in article 1, may be revoked by the respective nominating body only for serious reasons (e.g. illness, illicit acts, etc.).
