

Junior Camp USI-SUPSI 2023

General terms and conditions

Registration/Programme

- 1) Only entries from children in the age range indicated (4-11 years) will be taken into consideration.
- 2) Activities will take place only if a minimum number of 12 participants is reached; there is a maximum number of 24 participants. Half of the places will be allocated to children whose parents work at USI and the other half to children whose parents work at SUPSI.
- 3) The activities will take place in Italian.
- 4) The allocation of places will follow the order in which the registration form is received. A waiting list will be created.
- 5) In order to complete the registration, each parent shall:
 - complete, sign and send the registration form together with a declaration of good health of the child to the Equal Opportunities Service of USI or to the Gender and Diversity Service of SUPSI;
 - pay the full amount of the registration fee for the USI Equal Opportunities Service or the SUPSI Gender and Diversity Service within the established terms.
- 6) Successful registration will be confirmed in writing by USI Equal Opportunities Service and SUPSI Gender and Diversity Service. Together with the confirmation, USI and SUPSI will provide the information for the payment of the fee, which must be made within the indicated term or the registration will be considered forfeited and will therefore not be considered. Children on the waiting list will be considered.
- 7) The registration is valid for the whole week. It is not possible to register for individual days or half-time participation.
- 8) There are no reductions or discounts on tuition.
- 9) Any absence, caused by illness or unforeseen events, must be immediately notified to the educators' team.
- 10) The Equal Opportunities Service of USI and the Gender and Diversity Service of SUPSI reserve the right to change the content of the activities at any time without notice.

Withdrawal/Refund

- 11) Any withdrawal must be notified in writing to the Equal Opportunities Service of USI or to the Gender and Diversity Service of SUPSI, depending on the institution to which the parent belongs.
- 12) The right of withdrawal without payment of any cost may be taken into account if communicated up to 10 working days before the start of the Junior Camp. In this case, the amount paid will be fully refunded. If the deadline of 10 working days is not respected, there is no right to any refund and all the amount paid will be retained.
- 13) Cancellation for medical reasons is possible at any time upon presentation of a doctor's certificate made in the child's name and covering the period of the Junior Camp activities. In this case, the costs of participation will be reimbursed, apart from CHF 40 for administrative costs. In addition, if the registration is cancelled during the week, the costs of the activities already carried out will be deducted from the refund.

Safety/Health

- 14) Participants are required to follow the instructions given by the organisers and the usual rules of safety and caution.
- 15) In the event of a child's illness, USI Equal Opportunities Service and SUPSI Gender and Diversity Service reserve the right to contact the family. Parents undertake to come and pick up their children immediately after the educator's call.

Insurances/Liability

- 16) Each parent is required to insure his/her child(ren) against the risks of damage and accidents. By signing, the parents certify that their child(ren) is/are insured accordingly.
- 17) USI Equal Opportunities Service and SUPSI Gender and Diversity Service accept no liability for damage, theft or loss of property during the weeks of extracurricular activity they organise.
- 18) These General Terms and Conditions may be subject to variations to adhere to possible indications from the Cantonal authorities with regards to the organization of summer camp.

In the event of disputes, Swiss law shall apply and the place of jurisdiction shall be Lugano.

Lugano, 30 March 2023