
Open position for a Postdoctoral Fellow

The Prostate Cancer Biology group directed by Dr. Giuseppina Carbone at the Institute of Oncology Research in Bellinzona, Switzerland, is seeking a Postdoctoral Fellow

www.ior.usi.ch

The Institute of Oncology Research (IOR) in Bellinzona, Switzerland, is a rapidly evolving, leading center for basic and translational research in oncology in Europe. The aim of our research is to decode the mechanisms of cancer pathogenesis and develop innovative and rational-based avenues to fight cancer. Currently, the Institute hosts seven research groups working on lymphomas, hematopoietic malignancies, prostate and breast cancer. The Institute, affiliated to the Università della Svizzera italiana (USI) and other leading Swiss Universities and Research Centers, provides excellent core facilities, highly competitive salary and support structures, including automated microscopy systems, FACS scan and sorting facility, next generation sequence and animal facilities.

The Prostate Cancer Biology group directed by Dr. Giuseppina Carbone at the IOR is looking for a highly motivated researcher. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to work on one of several projects focused on prostate cancer biology, mouse modeling, epigenomics, genomics and transcriptomic approaches.

Candidate's qualifications

- Ph.D or M.D./Ph.D. (already obtained or soon to be)
- Highly motivated person with strong interest in research
- Working experience with mouse models is preferred
- Working experience in molecular biology, epigenomics, genomics and transcriptomic techniques is desirable
- Knowledge of basic bioinformatics tools is desirable
- Applicants with a strong background in basic cancer biology and willingness to work on mouse models are encouraged to apply.

Application

We are looking forward to receiving your comprehensive digital application including a specific motivation letter in English, curriculum vitae, two references, and a short description of previous training and work experiences.

Please send application to humanresources@ior.usi.ch
